- (4) the serial number of the share certificate;
- (5) other items required to be specified by the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 42 Share certificates shall be signed by the Chairman. Where the signatures of other senior management members of the Company are required by the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed, the share certificates shall also be signed by those senior management members. The share certificates shall take effect upon affixing the Company's seal or special securities seal or by printing it thereon with the authority of the Board of Directors. The signatures of the Chairman of the Company or other relevant senior management members appearing on the share certificates may also be in printed form.

Article 43 The Company shall keep a register of shareholders to contain the following particulars:

- (1) the name, address (residence) of each shareholder;
- (2) the category and number of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) the amount paid or payable on the shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) the serial numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which each shareholder was registered as a shareholder; and
- (6) the date on which each shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

The register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholding in the Company, unless there is evidence to the contrary.

Article 44 The Company may, pursuant to any understanding or agreement reached between the securities regulatory authority under the State Council and overseas securities regulatory authority, keep the original register of the foreign shareholders of overseas listed foreign invested shares in any place outside the PRC, and entrust its administration to an overseas agency. The original register of shareholders of H shares shall be kept in Hong Kong.

The Company shall maintain a copy of the register of the foreign shareholders of overseas listed foreign invested shares at the address of the Company; the entrusted overseas agent shall ensure that the original and the duplicate copies of the register of the foreign shareholders of overseas listed foreign invested shares are consistent at all times.

Where the original and the duplicate copies of the register of the foreign shareholders of overseas listed foreign invested shares are not consistent, the original copy shall prevail.

Article 45 The Company shall maintain a complete register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall contain the following particulars:

- (1) a part maintained at the Company's legal address consisting of portions other than that required under paragraph (2) and (3) of this Article;
- (2) the register of shareholders of H shares of the Company maintained in Hong Kong;
- (3) any such parts maintained at such other place as the Board may consider necessary for listing purposes.

Article 46 Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not be overlapped. No transfer of any shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register.

The alteration or rectification of each part of the register of shareholders shall be determined in accordance with the laws of its sites.

Article 47 All paid-up H shares are freely transferable in accordance with the Articles of Association without limitation of any lien of the Company; however, the Board may refuse to recognize any instrument of transfer without giving any reason unless such transfer is fulfilled the following conditions:

- (1) payment of a fee of HK$2.5 per instrument of transfer or the higher amount as revised by the GEM Listing Rules of Hong Kong Stock Exchange lately, to the Company for the registration of any transfer document(s) or other document(s) relating to or affecting the ownership of the shares in question or the change of ownership of those shares;
- (2) the instrument of transfer relates only to the H shares;
- (3) payment in full of any stamp duty due on the instrument of transfer;
- (4) production of the relevant share certificates and any other evidence reasonably required by the Board to prove the transferor's right to make the transfer;

- (5) if the shares are to be transferred to joint holders, the number of such joint holders shall not exceed four (4);
- (6) the instrument of transfer shall be the standard transfer form required by Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Article 48 For the purposes of convening a shareholders' general meeting, distributing dividends, liquidation or other activities requiring the determination of who is a shareholder, the Board shall designate a date to be the record date. Shareholders whose names appear on the register of shareholders at the end of that day are the shareholders of the Company.

Article 49 Any person who challenges the information set out in the register of shareholders by requiring his (its) name to be entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register.

Article 50 Any person who is a registered holder of shares in the Company or who claims to be entitled to have his name entered in the register of shareholders in respect of shares in the Company may, if it appears that the certificate relating to the shares ("the original certificate") is lost, apply to the Company for a new certificate in respect of such shares (the "relevant shares").

Where holders of domestic invested shares have lost their share certificates and apply for their replacement shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of Article 150 of the Company Law.

Where holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares have lost their share certificates and apply for their replacement may be dealt with in accordance with the laws, the rules of the stock exchange and other relevant requirements of the place at where the original register of holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares is kept.

The issue of replacement share certificates to holders of H shares shall comply with the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in prescribed form accompanied by a notarial act or statutory declaration stating the grounds upon which the application is made, the circumstances for such loss and the evidence thereof and that no other person shall be entitled to enter his name on the register of shareholders in respect of the relevant shares.
- (2) No statement has been received by the Company from a person other than the applicant for having his name registered as a holder of the relevant shares before the Company came to a decision to issue the replacement share certificate.
- (3) The Company shall, if it decides to issue a replacement share certificate, publish a notice of its intention in such newspapers or periodicals as may be prescribed by the Board. The publication must be made at least once every thirty (30) days in a period of ninety (90) days.
- (4) The Company shall, prior to the publication of its notice of intention to issue a replacement certificate:
 - (i) deliver to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange a copy of the notice to be published. The notice may be published upon receiving confirmation from such stock exchange that the notice has been exhibited at its premises, it being a condition that such exhibition shall be for a period of ninety (90) days.
 - (ii) In the case of an application made without the consent of the registered holder of the relevant shares, the Company shall send by post a photocopy of the notice to be published to such registered shareholder.
- (5) If, upon the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in Paragraph (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company has not received notice of any other claim in respect of the relevant shares, the Company may issue a replacement share certificate in accordance with the applicant's request.

- (6) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate under this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original certificate and enter the cancellation and issue in the register of shareholders accordingly.
- (7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and the issue of a replacement share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company may refuse to take any action until reasonable security is provided by the applicant.

Article 51 Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles, the name of a bona fide purchaser of the replacement certificate issued or of person who is subsequently registered as a shareholder owning the shares to which the certificates relates, shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 52 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original certificate or the issuance of the replacement certificate, unless the claimant proves that the Company had acted fraudulently.

Chapter 7 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 53 A shareholder of the Company is a person who legally holds shares of the Company and who has had his name entered in the register of shareholders.

Shareholders enjoy the rights and have obligations according to the category and amount of shares held by them. Shareholders holding shares of the same class enjoy equal rights and have same form of obligations.

In case of joint holders, on the death of any one of such joint holders, only the survivor(s) shall be the only person or persons recognized by the Company as having any title to any such shares, but the Board may require such evidence of death as it may deem fit for the purpose of making amendments to the particulars in the register of shareholders. Only the person whose name stands first in the register of shareholders as one of the joint holders of any share shall be entitled to delivery certificate relating to such share, to receive notices from the Company, to attend and exercise all the voting powers attached to such share at shareholders' general meetings of the Company, and any notice given to such person shall be deemed notice to all the joint holders.

Article 67 For Shareholders of domestic shares and H shares, notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall be made by way of an announcement. The public announcement referred to in the preceding sentence shall be published on the website of HKEx no later than twenty (20) days prior to the annual general meeting or fifteen (15) days prior to the extraordinary general meeting. All Shareholders of domestic shares and H shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' meeting upon the publication of the announcement.

Article 68 The accidental omission to give notice of the meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting or any resolution passed at such meeting.

Article 69 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one person or more (need not be a shareholder) as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him/her; such proxy could exercise the following rights as entrusted by such shareholder:

- (1) the right of speech of such shareholder at a shareholders' general meeting;
- (2) demand a poll either by him/herself or jointly with others;
- (3) exercise voting rights by show of hands or by way of poll, but such voting rights shall only be exercised by way of poll if more than one proxy have been appointed.

Article 70 The appointment of a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing; or if the appointor is a corporation, either under corporate seal or under the hand of its director or its attorney duly authorised.

Article 71 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited at the premises of the Company or such other place specified in the notice of meeting convening such meeting not less than 24 hours before the time for holding such meeting or 24 hours before the specified time demanding a poll. The power of attorney or other authority shall be notarized if such instrument is signed by others authorized by the appointor. The notarized power of attorney or other authority shall be deposited at the premises of the Company or such other place specified in the notice of meeting together with such instrument.

In the case of the appointor being a corporation, its legal representative or person(s) authorized by the Board or other decision-making bodies shall act as representative to attend shareholders' meetings of the Company.

Article 72 Any format of the instrument appointing a proxy given to a shareholder by the Board shall allow such shareholder to freely instruct such proxy to vote in favour of or against a resolution, and to give instruction in respect of any item needed to be resolved for each resolution on the meeting. Such instrument shall indicate that if no instruction is given, the proxy should vote at his/her discretion.

Article 73 In case of death, incapacitation, revoke of appointment and the authority under which the instrument is signed or a transfer of relevant shares of the appointor prior to voting, the votes cast by a proxy in accordance with such instrument shall not be invalidated as long as the Company has not received a written notice on such businesses prior to the relevant meeting.

Article 74

An individual shareholder attending a shareholders' general meeting in person shall produce his/her identification proof and evidence of his/her shareholdings: a proxy representing his/her shareholder to attend a shareholders' general meeting shall produce his/her identification proof, evidence of his/her shareholdings and the instrument under he/she is appointed (other than a clearing house (or its agent) (hereinafter referred to as "Clearing House") as defined under the Securities and Future Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong)) as well as the identification proof of the agent. In case of a corporate shareholder appointing its legal representative to attend the meeting, the Company has the right to request such legal representative to produce the evidence of shareholdings as being the corporate shareholder, and a valid copy of the resolution by the Board or other governing bodies appointing such legal representative (excluding Clearing House), as well as a valid identification proof and a copy of the power of attorney of that corporate representative. If the corporate shareholder is a Clearing House, it could authorize one person or more whom they think fit to act as its representative at any shareholders' general meeting . However, if more than one person are authorized, the power of attorney shall set out the number and the class of shares in respect of each such persons so authorised. Any person so authorized could exercise the rights on behalf of the Clearing House, as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 75

The resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Passing of an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting shall be made with more than half of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the shareholders' general meeting.

Passing of an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting shall be made with more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the shareholders' general meeting.

Shareholders (including proxies) present at a shareholders' general meeting shall expressly vote in favour of or against every business put to vote. An abstention of vote or abstaining from voting shall not be treated as votes with voting rights when the voting results of such business is being counted.

If any shareholder must abstain from voting or is restricted to vote only in favour of or against a special resolution according to the Articles of Association of the Company or the Listing Rules of the GEM of the Stock Exchanges, the vote cast in violation of the above requirements or restrictions by such shareholder or his/her proxy shall not be counted as a valid votes.

Article 76 When a shareholders (including proxy) exercise his/her voting rights in respect of the number of shares, with voting rights, represented by him/her at a shareholders' general meeting, each share has one vote.

Article 77 A shareholders' general meeting shall be decided by show of hands or a poll, and a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a poll been carried, and an entry to that effect made in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes in favour or against such resolution carried at the meeting.

Article 78 If the business put to vote by poll concerns the election of the chairman or adjournment of the meeting, it shall be immediately voted. The other businesses put to vote by poll will be decided by the chairman as to when to vote. The meeting could proceed to discuss other businesses and the poll results will be regarded as made at the meeting.

Article 79 On a poll, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all their votes in favour of or against a resolution.

Article 80 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second vote.

Article 81 The following matters shall be passed by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) work reports of the board of directors;
- (2) profit distribution plan and loss compensation plan prepared by the board of directors;
- (3) removal of the members of board of directors as well as the manner of compensation and payment;

- (4) annual budgets, final accounts, balance sheet, income statement and other financial statements of the Company;
- (5) other matters apart from those should be passed by special resolutions as required by the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association of the Company.

Article 82 The following matters shall be passed by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) an increase or reduction of equity, issuance of any class of shares, warrants and other similar securities by the Company;
- (2) an issuance of debentures of the Company;
- (3) a segregation, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) amendments to the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (5) other matters which are believed to cause material impact to the Company passed by ordinary resolution and those required to be passed by special resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 83 Shareholders who request to convene an extraordinary general meeting shall follow the procedures set out below:

- (1) Two or more shareholders who in aggregate hold more than 10% (inclusive 10%) of the voting rights of the shares with voting right in such a proposed meeting may sign one or more written requisitions in the same form and contents, requesting the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and specifying the subject matter of the meeting. The board of directors shall convene the extraordinary general meeting as soon as possible upon receiving the aforesaid written requisitions.

The aforesaid number of shares is based on the date of the written requisitions by the shareholders.

- (2) If the board of directors fails to give the notice convening the meeting within 30 days after receiving the written requisition, the shareholders requesting such requisitions may convene such a meeting by themselves within 4 months after the board of directors has received the requisitions. The procedures of convening the meeting shall follow as much as possible those procedures for a shareholders' general meeting convened by the board of directors.

The Company shall be liable to bear all the costs incurred reasonably in convening and holding a meeting by the shareholders as a result of the failure of the board of directors to convene such meeting upon the aforesaid requisitions, which shall be deducted from any payment owed to the directors who are in default of their duties.

Article 84 A shareholders' general meeting shall be convened and presided over by the chairman of the board of directors. If the chairman is unable to attend the meeting, the chairman may appoint another director of the Company to convene and preside over the meeting; shareholders attending the meeting may elect a chairman if it is left unspecified. If for any reason the shareholders fail to elect a chairman of the meeting, the shareholder present in person or by proxy in the meeting and holding the largest number of shares with the right to vote shall be the chairman of the meeting.

Article 85 The chairman of the meeting is responsible for deciding if a resolution at the shareholders' general meeting is passed. His decision shall be final and it shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 86 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of voting on any resolution, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting does not make a count of such votes, any shareholder present in person or by proxy at the meeting who objects the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to request a count of the votes immediately following the declaration of the result and the chairman of the meeting shall forthwith proceed with such counting.

- Article 87 In the event a count of the votes has been made at a shareholders' general meeting, the result thereof shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- Article 88 Minutes shall be taken in respect of the decisions on matters resolved at the shareholders' general meeting, which shall be signed by directors attending the meeting. Minutes of the meeting together with the signature book of shareholders attending the meeting and the instrument appointing a proxy shall be kept at the legal domicile of the Company.
- Article 89 Shareholders shall be entitled to inspect the copies of the minutes of the shareholders' general meeting(s) free of charge during office hours of the Company. Upon the request from any shareholder for a copy of the relevant minutes of meeting, the Company shall send the copy of the minutes so requested within 7 days after the receipt of reasonable payment.

Chapter 9 Board of Directors

- Article 90 The Company shall have a board of directors as the permanent governing body of the Company.
- Article 91 The board of directors comprises 9 directors, of which 2 are executive directors, 3 are independence non-executive directors and 4 are non-executive directors. The Board shall have a chairman.
- Article 92 Directors shall be elected in a shareholders' general meeting with a term of 3 years. Upon expiration of the term, the directors shall be eligible for re-election and re-appointment.

The notice on nomination of candidates for the election of directors shall be given to the Company with a minimum period of 7 days, during which the candidates could give a notice to the Company indicating their willingness to stand for the election. The submission period for such notice is from the following day of dispatching the notice of the shareholders' general meeting on election to 7 days prior to the convening of such shareholders' general meeting.

The chairman shall be elected and dismissed by more than a half of all the directors on the Board with a term of three years. Upon expiration of the term, the chairman shall be eligible for re-election and re-appointment.

The shareholders' general meeting could dismiss any director whose term has not expired by way of a ordinary resolution under the premise of complying with relevant laws and administrative regulations (but claims that may be submitted under any contract shall not be affected).

Directors need not hold shares of the Company.

Article 93

The board of directors shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meeting and shall have the following responsibilities:

- (1) to convene a shareholders' general meeting and report to the meeting their work;
- (2) to implement the resolutions passed at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (3) to determine the business plans and investment proposals of the Company;
- (4) to prepare the annual financial budget and final accounts of the Company;
- (5) to prepare the profit distribution plan and loss compensation plan of the Company;
- (6) to prepare proposals for the increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company and proposals for the issuance of debentures;
- (7) to prepare proposals for merger, segregation or dissolution of the Company;
- (8) to determine the establishment of the internal management structure of the Company;
- (9) to appoint or dismiss the general manager of the Company and according to the nomination by the General manager, to appoint or dismiss the Chief Financial Officer and to determine their remuneration;
- (10) to establish the basic management system of the Company;
- (11) to draw up proposals for the amendment of the Articles of Association;

- (12) to determine the finance and borrowings of the Company and the pledge, lease, contract and transfer of the major assets of the Company, and to authorize the general manager to exercise the rights in this paragraph to a certain extent and within a certain period, subject to the relevant laws, regulations and Articles of Associations of the Company;
- (13) to perform other duties and powers as stipulated in the Articles of Association and as authorized by shareholders' general meetings.

Except that the resolutions in relation to the matters mentioned in (6), (7), (11) and (12) above shall be passed by not less than two-thirds of the directors, the resolutions in relation to other matters could be passed by more than half of the directors.

Article 94 The board of directors shall perform their duties in compliance with the laws of the State, administrative regulations, the Articles of Association of the Company and the resolutions of shareholders' general meetings.

Article 95 The chairman of the board of directors shall exercise the following powers:

- (1) to preside over the shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over the meetings of the board of directors;
- (2) to review the implementation of the resolutions of the board of directors;
- (3) to sign the securities issued by the Company;
- (4) other responsibilities conferred by the board of directors.

If the chairman of the board of directors is unable to perform his duties, he could appoint another director to perform such duties on his behalf.

Article 96 Meetings of the board of directors should be held at least twice every year and convened by chairman with the notice of which should be delivered to all directors fifteen days prior to the meeting. In case of urgent issues, extraordinary meeting of the board of directors would be proposed to be held by more than one third of directors or General Manger.

Article 97

Notice of meeting of the board of directors and extraordinary meeting of the board of directors should be delivered by the following means:

- (1) If the time and venue of the regular meeting of the board of directors have previously been decided by the board of directors, the meeting is deemed to be noticed by law.
- (2) If the time and venue of meeting of the board of directors have not previously been decided by the board of directors, the chairman should notify directors of the time and place of meeting of the board of directors by email, telegram, facsimile, express delivery, registered mail or personal delivery not less than fifteen days before such meeting.
- (3) If an urgent matter arises that requires an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors to be convened, the chairman or secretary of the board of directors of the Company would notify directors of the time and place of meeting of the board of directors by email, telegram, facsimile, express delivery, registered mail or personal delivery not less than two days and not more than fifteen days before such meeting.
- (4) The notice shall be in Chinese and, where necessary, have attached thereto an English translation thereof and shall include an agenda of the meeting. Any directors would waive rights of receiving notice of the meeting of the board of directors.
- (5) If a Director has attended a meeting, a notice shall be deemed to have been sent to him.
- (6) The regular meeting of board of directors or extraordinary meeting of the board of directors may be convened in a form of a conference telephone or similar communication equipment by means of which all directors participating in the meeting are capable of hearing and communicating with each other and all directors participating are deemed have attended the meeting personally.

Article 98

The meeting of the board of directors may not be held unless not less than half of the directors are present.

Each Director shall have a ballot for voting. Unless otherwise required herein, the resolutions of the board of directors shall be passed by more than half of all directors. The chairman of the board of directors is entitled to an additional casting vote in case of an equality of for and against votes.

In the event that more than one-fourth of directors or more than two external directors consider that the information of the resolution is insufficient or the proof is not clear, they could defer the meeting of the board of directors or defer the discussion of certain matters of the board of directors, which should be adopted by the board of directors.

Article 99

A Director should attend the meeting of the board of directors in person. In the event that a Director cannot attend the meeting, he could authorise another director to attend the meeting of the board of directors on behalf of him/her by means of a written attorney, which should set out the scope of authorization.

The director who attends meeting should exercise rights of the Director within the scope of the authorization. In the event that a Director does not attend a meeting of the board of directors, neither in person nor by proxy, he is deemed to abstain from the voting at such meeting.

Article 100

The board of directors should keep minutes for resolutions passed at the meeting, and directors, secretary of the board of directors and the minute-taker that attend the meeting should sign on the minutes of the meeting. Recommendations issued by independent Director should be stated in the resolution of the board of directors. directors should be liable of resolutions of the board of directors. Any resolutions of the board of directors prejudice the law, regulation or Articles of Association and result in material loss to the Company, directors who participate in the resolution should be liable for the indemnity to the Company; but Director who vote against to the resolution and be recorded in minutes should be discharged from the liability.

Chapter 10 Secretary of the Board of Directors

Article 101

The Company should have a Secretary of board of directors, who shall be a senior management member of the Company.

Article 102 Secretary of board of directors should be a natural person who possesses necessary professional knowledge and experience and appointed by the board of directors. The principal duties of the responsibility is:

- (10) without the informed consent of shareholders' general meeting, not to compete in any way with the Company;
- (11) not to misappropriate the funds of the Company or to lend the funds of the Company to others in breach of rules; not to deposit the assets of the Company in the accounts opened under their own names or the names of other persons; not to use the assets of the Company as security for the liabilities of the shareholders of the Company or any other persons;
- (12) without the informed consent of shareholders' general meeting, not to disclose any confidential information of the Company acquired during their terms of office, nor to make use of such information except for the benefit of the Company, provided that such information may be disclosed to a court of law or other governmental authorities under the following situations:
 1. as required by the laws;
 2. as required by the public interest;
 3. is required by the interests of such directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members.

Article 117 The directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company shall not knowingly cause any one of the following persons or organizations (“connected persons”) to do such acts which such directors, general manager and other senior management members are prohibited from doing:

- (1) the spouse or the minor children of directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company;
- (2) a trustee of directors, general manager and other senior management members or the Company or of the persons mentioned in (1) of this Article;
- (3) a partner of directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company or of the persons mentioned in (1) and (2) of this Article;
- (4) companies actually and solely controlled by directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company, or companies actually and jointly controlled by the persons referred to in (1), (2) and (3) of this Article or the directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company;
- (5) the directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company being controlled as mentioned in (4) of this Article.

Article 118 The integrity obligation of the directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company shall not be necessarily terminated after the expiration of their terms of office. The obligations to keep the commercial secrets of the Company confidential shall survive the expiration of their terms of office. The continuance of other obligations shall be determined on a fair basis depending on the length of the time between its occurrence and their departure from office and the circumstances and the conditions under which their relations with the Company were terminated.

Article 119 The liabilities of directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company in respect of the breach of certain substantive obligations may be discharged with the informed consent by shareholders’ general meeting except for the circumstances provided for in Article 58 of these Articles and Association.

Article 120 In an event that the directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company are interested materially, directly or indirectly, in a contract, transaction or arrangement made or proposed to be made with the Company (except for the service contract of the directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company), they shall disclose to the board of directors the nature and extent of their interest at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the relevant matters are subject to the approval by the board of directors under normal circumstances.

Unless the directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company so interested has disclosed such interest to the board of directors as required in this Article and the board of directors has approved the same in meeting in which he has not been counted in the quorum and has refrained from voting, the Company shall have the right to revoke such contracts, transactions or arrangements except as against a bona fide party without notice of the breach of the duties by the directors, general manager and other senior management members concerned.

If any connected person of directors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company is interested in certain contracts, transactions or arrangements, such directors, general manager and other senior management members shall also be deemed to be interested in the same.

Article 121 If a director, general manager, vice general manager or other senior management members of the Company has sent a written notice, stating that in view of the content set out thereof, he shall be interested in the contract, transaction or arrangement to be entered by the Company, to the board of directors before the Company's first consideration of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement, in such case, to the extent explained in the notice, the related director, general manager, vice general manager or other senior management members shall be deemed as having made such disclosure as provided in the preceding article of this chapter.

Article 122 The Company shall not pay taxes in any manner for its directors, general managers and other senior management members.

Article 123 The Company shall neither provide loans or guarantees for loans, directly or indirectly, to the directors, general managers and other senior management members of the Company and its parent company, nor provide loans or guarantees for loans to the related persons of the said persons.

The preceding clause does not apply to the following cases:

- (1) the Company provides loans or guarantees for loans to its subsidiaries;
- (2) according to the appointment contracts approved at the shareholders' general meeting, the Company provide loans, guarantees for loan or other sum to the directors, general managers and other senior management members of the Company such that they may make payments for the purpose of the Company or pay the expenses incurred on account of their performance of the duties in the Company;
- (3) If provision of loans and guarantees for loans are within the scope of normal business of the Company, it may provide loans and guarantees for loans to relevant directors, general managers and other senior management members and their related persons, provided that such provision shall be made under normal commercial conditions.

Article 124 Loans provided by the Company in breach of the preceding Article shall be repaid forthwith by the recipients irrespective of the terms under the loans.

Article 125 Guarantees for repayment of loans provided by the Company in breach of clause 1 of Article 129 shall not be enforceable against the Company, unless:

- (1) at the time the loans were provided to the related persons of the directors, general managers, vice general managers and other senior management members of the Company or its parent company, the lender was not aware of such cases;
- (2) the collaterals provided by the Company have been lawfully disposed by the lenders to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 126 The guarantees mentioned in the preceding Article include behaviour where obligations or properties are undertaken or provided by the guarantor to guarantee the obligors perform their obligations.

Article 127

In addition to the rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a director, general manager or other senior management members of the Company is in breach of his duties to the Company, the Company has a right to:

- (1) claim damages from such director, general manager and other senior management members in compensation for losses incurred by the Company as a result of such breach;
- (2) rescind any contracts or transactions entered into by the Company with such director, general manager and other senior management members and any contracts or transactions entered into by the Company with a third party (where such third party is aware or should have been aware that there is such director, general manager, vice general manager and other senior management members is in breach of his duties to the Company);
- (3) demand such director, general manager and other senior management members to return the revenue generated from breaching his duties;
- (4) recover any monies received by such director, general manager and other senior management members which should otherwise have been received by the Company, including but not limited to commissions;
- (5) request such director, general manager and other senior management members to return the interests accrued or may be accrued on the monies which should have been paid to the Company.

Article 128

Writing contracts in relation to remuneration shall be entered between the Company and its directors subject to prior approval at the shareholders' general meetings. The aforementioned remuneration includes:

- (1) remuneration for serving as the directors, senior management members of the Company;
- (2) remuneration for serving as the directors, senior management members of the subsidiaries of the Company;

- (3) remuneration for providing other services relating to the management of the Company and its subsidiaries;
- (4) payments made to compensate such director for the loss of office or retirement.

Saving the aforementioned contracts, no proceeding shall be initiated by the directors against the Company for their deserved benefits related to the foregoing issues.

Article 129

Contracts concerning emoluments between the Company and its directors shall provide that, in the event of a takeover of the Company, the directors shall, subject to the prior approval at the shareholders' general meetings, have the rights to receive compensation or other payments in respect of a loss of office or retirement. A "takeover of the Company" referred to in the preceding clause means either:

- (1) an offer made by any person to all shareholders;
- (2) an offer made by any person, aiming at procuring the offeror to become the "controlling shareholder", the definition of which has the same meaning as "controlling shareholder" set out in the Article 59.

If the relevant director does not comply with the provision under this article, any proceeds so received by him shall belong to those who have sold their shares as a result of the said offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such proceeds on pro rata basis shall be borne by the relevant director and shall not be paid out of such proceeds.

Chapter 14 Financial Accounting System and Profit Distribution

Article 130

The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems and internal audit system according to laws, administrative regulations and the regulations of the PRC accounting standards prepared by the competent financial department of the State Council.

- Article 131 The Company shall prepare a financial report at the end of each accounting year and shall be audited and examined in accordance with laws. The Company's financial reports shall include the following financial and accounting statements as well as schedules of breakdowns:
- (1) Balance sheet;
 - (2) Profit and loss statement;
 - (3) Statement of changes in financial position (or cash flow statement);
 - (4) Description of the financial situation;
 - (5) Statement of profit distribution.
- Article 132 The board of directors of the Company shall submit to shareholders the financial reports prepared by the Company requested by laws, administrative regulations, regulatory documents issued by local governments and competent departments at each annual general meeting.
- Article 133 For the Shareholders of H shares and domestic shares, the financial report of the Company shall be notified by means of an announcement published on the website of HKEx. All Shareholders of domestic shares and H shares shall be deemed to have received the financial report of the Company upon the announcement of the financial report published.
- Article 134 Not only shall the financial statements of the Company be prepared according to the PRC accounting standards and regulations, but also shall such statements be in line with the international accounting standards or standards at place of overseas listing. Any differences between the statements prepared on both accounting standards shall be indicated in the notes to the financial statements. Allocation of the profit after tax for the accounting year shall be based on the lower of profit after tax shown in both versions of the statements.
- Article 135 Interim Results or financial data announced or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared according to the PRC accounting standards and regulations as well as international accounting standards or standards at place of overseas listing.

Article 136 The Company shall publish two financial reports in each accounting year, i.e. the interim reports published within 3 months after the end of the first six months of the accounting year, and the annual reports published within 4 months after the end of the accounting year.

The Company will publish the relevant financial reports according to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, in the case that the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on GEM tighten the requirements on publishing the financial reports without violating the foregoing provisions.

The Company may dispatch: (i) copies of financial reports summary to the shareholders or holders of listed securities instead of annual reports and copies of financial reports; (ii) copies of half-yearly reports summary to the shareholders or holders of listed securities instead of copies of half-yearly reports. Under the above circumstances, the Company shall comply with the relevant regulations of the Companies Law, the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 32 of the Laws of Hong Kong) and the GEM Listing Rules of the Stock Exchange.

Article 137 The Company shall not keep separate books apart from its statutory books.

Article 138 The Company implements an internal audit system, in which an internal audit institution is set up or internal auditing staffs are provided for auditing and supervising the fiscal revenue and expenditure as well as economic activities of the Company internally under the leadership of the board of directors.

Article 139 Profit after tax of the Company shall be distributed in the following order:

- (1) covering losses;
- (2) transferring to the statutory surplus reserve;
- (3) transferring to the statutory public welfare fund;
- (4) transferring to the discretionary surplus reserve;
- (5) paying dividends on ordinary shares.

Article 140 Corporation reserve includes surplus reserve and capital reserve. Surplus reserve consists of statutory surplus reserve and discretionary surplus reserve.

Article 141 When distributing its profit after tax for the current year, the Company shall transfer 10% of the profit to its statutory surplus reserve, and transfer 5% to 10% of the profit to its statutory public welfare fund. Transfer to the statutory surplus reserve of the Company may cease once its cumulative amount exceeds 50% of the Company's registered capital. Where the statutory surplus reserve is not sufficient to cover the loss of the Company from the previous year, the profit for the current year shall be used firstly to cover such loss before transferring to the statutory surplus reserve and the statutory public welfare fund pursuant to the previous provision. The Company may transfer to the discretionary surplus reserve after transferring the profit after tax to the statutory surplus reserve and having resolved at the shareholders' general meetings. After the Company has covered losses and transferred to surplus reserve and the statutory public welfare fund, the remaining profit shall be distributed among shareholders on a pro rata basis.

If the shareholders' general meeting or the board of directors violates the preceding provisions and distributes the profit among shareholders prior to covering its losses and transferring to the statutory surplus reserve and the statutory public welfare fund, the profit distributed in violation of such provisions shall be returned to the Company.

Article 142 Capital reserve includes the followings:

- (1) share premium in excess of the nominal value of the share issued;
- (2) other income classified as capital reserve required by the competent financial department of the State Council.

Article 143 Purposes of the capital reserve are limited to the followings:

- (1) covering losses;
- (2) expanding the operation of the Company or increasing its capital.

The Company may by resolution at the shareholders' general meeting allot new shares in proportion to the shares held by the shareholders upon transferring the capital reserve to the capital, provided that statutory surplus reserve, when it is transferred to the capital, shall retain at least 25% of the registered capital.

- Article 144 The amount transferred to the statutory surplus reserve by the Company shall be applied to the collective benefits of the employees of the Company.
- Article 145 Dividends shall be paid, in proportion to the shares held by the shareholders within 6 months after the end of each accounting year. The board of directors may, with the authorisation of the shareholders' general meeting, pay interim dividends unless otherwise determined by the shareholders' general meeting.
- Article 146 Dividends shall be paid by the Company in the following forms:
- (1) in cash;
- (2) by shares.
- Article 147 Payment of dividends or otherwise which is denominated and declared in RMB by the Company to the shareholders of the domestic shares shall be made in RMB within three months since the date of such declaration; the payment of dividends or otherwise which is denominated and declared in foreign currencies by the Company to the shareholders of the foreign invested shares shall be made in foreign currencies within three months since the date of such declaration.
- If any shareholder does not collect the declared dividends after declaring such dividends, the Company has the right to forfeit such uncollected dividends, provided that such power can only be exercised upon the expiration of applicable period.
- The Company shall make payments in foreign currency to the shareholders of foreign shares subject to the regulations of the related foreign exchange management of the Chinese law.
- Article 148 The Company shall charge and pay the amount of tax payable arisen from the dividend income of individual shareholders on behalf of such persons pursuant to the PRC tax law.
- Article 149 The Company shall appoint a receiving agent on behalf of the shareholders holding overseas listed foreign invested shares. The receiving agent shall receive the dividend and other payables distributed in respect to the overseas listed foreign invested shares on behalf of the related shareholders.

The receiving agent appointed by the Company shall comply with laws or all related requirements provided by the stock exchange where it is listed.

The receiving agent appointed by the Company for the shareholders of H shares shall be a registered trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Chapter 15 Appointment of Auditors

Article 150 The Company shall appoint a qualified independent accounting firm in accordance with the related provision of the PRC Law to audit the annual financial reports and other financial reports of the Company.

The first auditor may be appointed prior to holding the first annual general meeting and its term of service shall expire at the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

Where the power as set out in the preceding articles has not been exercised at the time holding the first annual general meeting, the Board may exercise such power.

Article 151 Terms of service of the accounting firm appointed by the company shall commence after the conclusion of the then annual general meeting until the conclusion of next annual general meeting.

Article 152 The accounting firm appointed by the Company is entitled with the rights:

- (i) to examine the books, records and evidences of the Company at any time and request the provision of related information and explanation by the directors, general managers and other senior management members of the Company;
- (ii) to request reasonable measures to be adopted by the Company such that the information and explanation, which are considered necessary for the performance of duties by the accounting firm, shall be obtained from the subsidiaries of the Company;
- (iii) to attend shareholders' general meetings and, as if in the manner any shareholder shall be entitled to, to receive notice of meeting or other related information about the meeting as well as to speak for any matters in connection with it as the accounting firm of the Company at any shareholders' general meeting.

Article 153 If the position of the accounting firm is vacated, the board of directors may, before convening the shareholders' general meetings, appoint an accounting firm to fill the place but whenever the aforesaid position remains vacated and provided that other accounting firm(s) is/are in service for the Company, such persons can still act alike.

Article 154 The Company may by ordinary resolution at the shareholders' general meeting dismiss the accounting firm before its term of service expires notwithstanding the terms under the contract between the accounting firm and the Company. Rights to claim against the Company due to its dismissal by such accounting firm shall not be thus affected.

Article 155 The remuneration and the means of determining remuneration to the accounting firm shall be decided by the shareholders' general meeting and the remuneration of the accounting firm appointed by the board of directors is determined by the board of directors.

Article 156 The appointment, dismissal or discontinuance of the accounting firm by the Company is determined at the shareholders' general meeting and such decision is filed to the competent authorities for securities of the State Council.

Where a resolution at a shareholders' general meeting of shareholders is passed to appoint as accounting firm a person other than an incumbent accounting firm, to fill a casual vacancy in the office of accounting firm, to reappoint as accounting firm a retiring accounting firm who was appointed by the board of directors to fill a casual vacancy, or to remove an accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) A copy of the proposal shall be sent before notice of meeting is given to the shareholders to the accounting firm proposed to be appointed or the accounting firm proposing to leave its post or the accounting firm who has left its post (leaving includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement).

- (2) If the accounting firm leaving its post makes representations in writing and requests their notification to the shareholders, the Company shall (unless the representations are received too late):
 1. in any notice of the resolution given to shareholders, state the fact of the representations having been made;
 2. send a copy of the representations to every shareholder as an attachment of the notice in the manner provided by the Articles of the Company.
- (3) If the accounting firm's representations are not sent by the Company under (2) of this article the accounting firm may (in addition to the right to be heard) require that the representations be read out at the meeting.
- (4) An accounting firm who is leaving its post shall be entitled to attend:
 1. the shareholders' general meeting at which his term of office would otherwise have expired;
 2. any shareholders' general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal;
 3. any shareholders' general meeting convened on his resignation;

and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any such meeting, and to be heard at any such meeting which he attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns it as former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 157

If the Company removes or terminates the appointment of the accounting firm, prior notice shall be given to such accounting firm and the accounting firm is entitled to make representations at the shareholders' general meeting. Where resignation is tendered by the accounting firm, representation shall be made to the shareholders' general meeting to state whether there are inappropriate matters.

The accounting firm may, by depositing its resignation in writing at the legal place of residence of the Company, leave its office. Notice shall be effective from the date on which it is deposited at the legal place of residence or such later date as specified on the notice. Such notice shall contain:

1. a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
2. a statement of any such circumstances.

Where a notice is deposited under the preceding article, the Company shall within 14 days send a copy of the notice to the competent authority. If the notice contained a statement under paragraph 2 of the preceding article, a copy of the notice shall be available at the Company for Shareholders' inspection. The Company shall notify every Shareholder of H shares by means of an announcement published on the website of HKEx.

Where the notice of resignation from the accounting firm contains a statement for any circumstances which should be made, the accounting firm may require the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of receiving an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation.

Chapter 16 Insurance

Article 158 All kinds of insurance of the Company shall be taken out with the designated institutions or the People's Insurance Company (Group) of China Limited or other insurance companies that are registered in the PRC and are permitted by the PRC laws to provide insurance to Chinese companies in the designated manner. The types of coverage, the insured amounts and periods shall be discussed and decided by the board of directors by reference to the practices of peer companies in other countries and the practices and legal requirements in the PRC.

Chapter 17 Labor System

Article 159 The Company establishes a labour and personnel regime that is applicable to the actual conditions of the Company, based on the relevant requirements under the Labour Contract Law of the PRC (中華人民共和國勞動合同法).

Chapter 18 Trade Union

Article 160 The Company organises and carries out trade union activities in accordance with the Trade Union Law of the PRC (中華人民共和國工會法).

Article 161 2% of the actual gross salaries of the employees of the Company are transferred to the trade union reserve each month which shall be used by the trade union of the Company in accordance with Measures for the Application of Trade Union Funds (工會基金使用辦法) formulated by All-China Federation of Trade Unions.

Chapter 19 Merger and Division of the Company

Article 162 In the event of the merger or spin-off of the Company, a plan shall be proposed by the board of directors of the Company and shall be approved in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the Articles of Association before processing the relevant examining and approving formalities as required by law. Shareholders who oppose the plan of merger or spin-off of the Company shall have the right to request that the Company or the Shareholders who consent to such plan purchase their shares at a fair price.

A special document of the Company's resolution on the merger or spin-off shall be published on the website of HKEx.

Article 163 The merger of the Company may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger by the establishment of a new company.

The merger of the Company shall be held under the agreement signed by all parties of the merger and a balance sheet and property list shall be prepared in respect of this. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days since the date of resolution on merger, and publish such announcement in newspaper at least thrice within 30 days since the aforesaid date. Within 30 days since the date on receipt of written notice, or within 45 days since the date of the first announcement (if such notice is not received), the creditor is entitled to request the Company for the settlement of its debts or the provision of the related guarantee. No merger shall proceed unless the debts are settled or guarantee is provided.

After the merger of the Company, the creditor's right and debts of all parties of the merger shall be taken over by the continuing company or the newly established company.

Article 164 Where the Company carries out spin-off, the properties shall be split up accordingly.

The spin-off of the Company shall be held under the agreement signed by all parties of the merger and a balance sheet and property list shall be prepared in respect of this. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days since the date of resolution on merger, and publish such announcement in newspaper at least thrice within 30 days since the aforesaid date. Within 30 days since the date on receipt of written notice, or within 45 days since the date of the first announcement (if such notice is not received), the creditor is entitled to request the Company for the settlement of its debts or the provision of the related guarantee. No spin-off shall proceed unless the debts are settled or guarantee is provided.

The debts before the spin-off shall be borne by the companies after the spin-off in accordance with the agreement reached.

Article 165 When the merger or spin-off of the Company involves changes in registered particulars, such changes shall be registered with the company registration authority in accordance with the law. When the Company dissolves, the Company shall cancel its registration in accordance with the law. When a new company is established, its establishment shall be registered in accordance with the law.

Chapter 20 Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

Article 166 The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (1) a resolution for dissolution is passed by the shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting;
- (2) dissolution is necessary for the purpose of a merger or spin-off of the Company;

- (3) the Company is unable to repay its due debts in full and is declared bankrupt in accordance with the law;
- (4) the Company is ordered to close down in accordance with the law as a result of violation of laws and administrative regulations.

Article 167

Where the Company is dissolved pursuant to paragraph (1) of the preceding article, a liquidation committee shall be set up within 15 days from the event of dissolution. The composition of the liquidation committee shall be determined by an ordinary resolution at the shareholders' general meeting of the shareholders. If no liquidation committee is set up within the prescribed period to commence the liquidation, creditors may apply to the People's Court to designate relevant persons to form a liquidation committee to carry out the liquidation.

Where the Company is dissolved pursuant to paragraph (3) of the preceding article, a liquidation committee with shareholders, relevant authorities and relevant professionals shall be established by the People's Court in accordance with the provisions of the relevant laws to carry out the liquidation.

Where the Company is dissolved pursuant to paragraph (4) of the preceding article, a liquidation committee with shareholders, relevant authorities and relevant professionals shall be established by the competent authorities to carry out the liquidation.

Article 168

Where the board of directors decides to liquidate the Company (other than liquidation on account of insolvency declared by the Company), it shall be stated in its notice of convening the shareholders' general meeting of shareholders for such purposes that after making a complete inquiry into the affairs of the Company, the board of directors is of the opinion that the Company will be capable to settle its debts in full within 12 months from the commencement of the liquidation.

The liquidation committee shall be appointed by the ordinary resolution at the shareholders' general meeting of the shareholders (other than circumstances provided under paragraph 3 and 4 of Article 166 herein).

Upon passing the resolution at the shareholders' general meeting of the shareholders for liquidation, all functions and powers of the board of directors of the Company shall cease.

The liquidation committee shall act in accordance with the instructions of the shareholders' general meeting of the shareholders to prepare a report at least once every year to the shareholders' general meeting of the shareholders on the committee's receipts and payments, the business of the Company and the progress of the liquidation and to present a final report to the shareholders' general meeting of the shareholders upon the conclusion of the liquidation.

Article 169

The liquidation committee shall within 10 days since its date of establishment notify the creditors, and publish announcements for at least thrice in a newspaper within 60 days since its date of establishment. Creditors shall within 30 days upon receipt of such written notice, or within 45 days from the date of the first notice (if such notice is not received), claim its creditor's rights to the liquidation committee. Rights that remain unclaimed after the said period expires shall be deemed as renounced.

Creditors, when claiming their rights to the liquidation committee, shall explain matters in relation to their rights and provide evidence. The liquidation committee shall register the creditor's rights.

Article 170

A liquidation committee shall exercise the following functions and powers during liquidation:

- (1) to thoroughly examine the property of the Company and prepare a balance sheet and a list of property, respectively;
- (2) to notify creditors by notice or announcement;
- (3) to dispose of and liquidate relevant unfinished business of the Company;
- (4) to pay all outstanding taxes in full;
- (5) to clear the claims and debts;
- (6) to dispose of the property remained after full payment of the Company's debts;
- (7) to represent the Company in any civil litigation activities.

Article 171 Having thoroughly examined the Company's property and prepared a balance sheet and a list of property, the liquidation committee shall set up a liquidation plan and submit to the shareholders' general meeting of the shareholders or relevant competent authorities for confirmation.

Where the Company's property is sufficient to pay its debts, liquidation expenses, the wages and workers insurance premiums and all outstanding taxes shall be paid, respectively, to settle the debts of the Company.

Any surplus assets of the Company remaining after its debts have been repaid in accordance with the preceding provisions shall be distributed to its shareholders according to the class and the proportion of shares held.

During the liquidation period, the Company shall not carry out any new business activities.

Article 172 For liquidation caused by dissolving the Company, if the liquidation committee, having thoroughly examined the Company's property and prepared a balance sheet and a list of property, discovers that the Company's property is insufficient to pay its debts in full, it shall apply to the People's Court forthwith for declaration of insolvency.

After the Company is declared insolvent by the People's Court, the liquidation committee shall transfer all matters arising from the liquidation to the People's Court.

Article 173 Upon conclusion of liquidation of the Company, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report, income and expenditure statement and financial books for the liquidation period and, after verification carried out by an accountant registered in the PRC, shall submit the same to the shareholders' general meeting or the relevant competent authority for confirmation.

The liquidation committee shall, within 30 days after obtaining confirmation from the shareholders' general meeting or the relevant competent authority, submit the aforesaid document to the company registration authority, and apply to cancel registration of the Company and announce termination of the Company.

Chapter 21 Procedures for Amending the Articles

Article 174 The Company may amend the Articles of Association in accordance with the laws, the administrative regulations and the provisions herein.

Article 175 The Company shall amend the Articles under the following procedures:

- (1) the board of directors shall, by passing resolutions pursuant to the provisions in this article, propose amendments to the Article of the Company to the shareholders' general meeting and draft the amended articles;
- (2) the foregoing drafts of the amended articles shall be furnished to the shareholders of the Company and convene a shareholders' general meeting to vote on the amendments;
- (3) the drafted amendments to the Article shall be approved by special resolution at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 176 Amendment of the Articles of Association related to the registered particulars of the Company including change of company's name, residence, legal representatives, registered capital, type of enterprise, scope of operation, term of operation, name of promoters, application shall be made to company registration and administration authority for change in registration in accordance with law.

Chapter 22 Dispute Resolution

Article 177 The Company shall abide by the following principles for dispute resolution:

- (1) Whenever any disputes or claims arise between: shareholders of the overseas listed foreign invested shares and the Company, shareholders of the overseas listed foreign invested shares and the Company's directors, general manager or other senior management members, or shareholders of the overseas listed foreign invested shares and shareholders of domestic invested shares in respect of any rights and obligations under the Company's Articles of Association, Companies Law and any other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Company, such disputes or claims shall be referred by the relevant parties to arbitration.

Where the said dispute or claim of rights is referred to arbitration, the entire claim or dispute must be referred to arbitration, and all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall, where such person is the Company or the shareholders, directors, supervisors, general managers or other senior management members of the Company, accept the arbitration.

Disputes in respect of the definition of shareholders and disputes in relation to the register of members may not necessarily be resolved by arbitration.

- (2) A claimant may elect for arbitration to be carried out at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its arbitration rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its securities arbitration rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must proceed with the arbitral body elected by the claimant.

If a claimant elects for arbitration to be carried out at Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, any party to the dispute or claim may apply for the proceedings to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the securities arbitration rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

- (3) If any disputes or claims of rights are settled by way of arbitration in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Article, the laws of the People's Republic of China shall apply, save as otherwise provided in the laws and administrative regulations.
- (4) The ruling of the arbitral body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

Chapter 23 Notice

Article 178 Notices or material issued by the Company to Shareholders of H shares shall be published by the way of an announcement on the website of HKEx, and all Shareholders of H shares shall be deemed to have received such notice upon the publication of the announcement.

Notices of the Company to the Shareholders of domestic shares shall be published by way of an announcement on the website of HKEx and all Shareholders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice upon the publication of the announcement.

Article 179 Any notices, documents, data or written statements from the shareholders or directors to the Company may be delivered personally or sent by registered mail to the legal address of the Company.

Article 180 Shareholders or directors of the Company who wish to prove that certain notices, documents, data or written statements have been sent to the Company shall provide evidential materials proving that such notices, documents, information or written statements have been sent to the Company under normal practice within a designated delivery period, and that the mailing address is correct and the postage is fully paid.

Chapter 24 Miscellaneous

Article 181 In the Company's Articles of Association, references to "accountancy firm" shall have the same meaning as "auditor".

Article 182 The appendices mentioned in the Articles of Association refer the relevant provisions contained in the appendices of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the Hong Kong Stock Exchange), which are listed especially for all parties and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange as reference.

Article 183 In the Articles of Association, all numbers include themselves unless otherwise required in the context.
